1001 Stories is a Project organised by Dortmund's UK Partner City Leeds as part of the Leeds' 2023 Year of Culture. Believing that everybody is creative and has a story to tell, the project organisers invited people over aged 60 or over to write a short story - anything from a funny anecdote to a milestone memory – to celebrate the lives, past, present and future of humans living in or related to the city of Leeds. The aim of the project is to present a vast range of experiences, and to demonstrate that the stories of older people have cultural value – whether that is by making others laugh, think, feel or simply engage with a story that is different from their own.

The Dortmund Anglo-German Society and the Auslandsgesellschaft.de are therefore both pleased and privileged to be able to invite you to the

1001 Stories Project
at 19.00 CET, on Wednesday 15th November 2023

During the evening, a number of senior citizens from Leeds will present a selection of the stories they and their fellow-authors have created. Besides reading the stories, they will also talk about the background to the texts and answer any questions you may wish to ask in order to relate their experiences to the people of Dortmund. The readings will be in English and the event will be online via ZOOM (cf. ZOOM Link below).

More information on the 1001 Stories project can be found on https://theperformanceensemble.com/1001stories/ and https://1001stories.org.uk/ .

We look forward to welcoming you on Wednesday, 15th November at 19.00 hours.
